

Greater
Edwards
Aquifer
Alliance

Education Outreach Programs Overview

Elena Serna, Special Projects Coordinator

Mission

The Greater Edwards Aquifer Alliance (GEAA) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that promotes protection and preservation of the Edwards Aquifer, its springs, watersheds, and the Texas Hill Country that sustains it.

Broad-based Advocacy

Edwards Aquifer Region

- Largest Springs in Texas
- Cities and Towns

Educational Outreach

- In-School Presentations
- Teaching Materials
- Field Trips
- Teacher In-Service Days

In-School Presentations

- Aquifer model demonstrations
- Edwards Aquifer overview for science classes
- Human impact on the Edwards Aquifer overview for social studies classes

Teaching Materials

- New and improved website, released next month: www.AquiferAlliance.org
- DVD designed for use in the classroom, produced by KLRN: Inner View of the Edwards Aquifer

Inner View of the Edwards Aquifer

- DVD Chapters:

- What is an Aquifer?
- Karst Aquifers
- The Edwards Limestone
- Human Impact on the Edwards Aquifer
- The Edwards is Unique

- Extra Features:

- Lab exercise and vocabulary PDFs
- Online resources directory PDF

Inner View of the Edwards Aquifer
Preview

Government Canyon Outdoor Education Program

Human Impact on the Edwards Aquifer

Teacher In-Service

Workshop Includes:

- TEKS-based presentations from experts
- Teaching materials
- Tour of Natural Bridge Caverns

Human Impact on the Edwards Aquifer

Teacher In-Service

Teachers receive 6 hours of Professional Development Credit

Questions?

Please sign up for GEAA's Educational Outreach
email list!