Texans Rate State Environmental Agency

Town Hall Meetings featuring performance reviews of the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) are being held across Texas in anticipation of the State Legislature's Sunset Review of the agency that is charged with protecting the health and safety of all Texans, and with enforcing the Federal Clean Air and Clean Water Acts here in Texas. TCEQ Town Halls have already been held in El Paso, Beaumont, Dallas, Houston, Corpus Christi, and Victoria, and are scheduled for other Texas cities, including San Antonio.

The Greater Edwards Aquifer Alliance, Leagues of Women Voters of the San Antonio Area and Comal County, the Alliance for a Clean Texas, the Lone Star and Alamo Groups of the Sierra Club, Bexar Audubon Society, Southwest Workers Union, the Helotes Nature Center, Citizens for the Protection of Cibolo Creek, 350 San Antonio.org, La Coste Residents for a Healthy Community, CASE New Braunfels, and State Representatives Trey Martinez Fischer and David McQuade Leibowitz are co-sponsoring a local event that will provide a forum for citizens, advocacy groups, local and county elected officials, and agencies from San Antonio and surrounding communities to recount their experiences with TCEQ, and to share their suggestions for improving this agency in light of TCEQ's upcoming Sunset Review.

Since this topic is so vital to the quality of life for the citizens of Central Texas, everyone is invited to join in this important conversation.
