

Dear GEAA members and friends,

Please contact your State Senator today and ask them to vote NO on SB 422, Senator Donna Campbell's bill that would nullify 27,000 acres of San Antonio's tree protection rules. If passed, look forward to seeing more clear cut land in the Hill Country.

SB 422 could receive its first vote as soon as Monday, April 8th. It is on the Senate's "Regular Order of Business" calendar and will receive two votes, a "Second Reading" vote and a "Third Reading" vote a day later.

Celebrate Earth Day at the Greater Edwards Aquifer Alliance Annual Gala!

Saturday, April 13, 2019 6-9PM

Join us at the beautiful Sandy Oaks Olive Orchard for a festive South Texas menu! (vegetarian options included).

Come and dance to the music by the seven piece Dirty River Dixie Band! There will be olive oil tastings, orchard tours, a silent auction, and of course libations!

Sandy Oaks also offers a beautiful shop full of olive oil products to peruse.

Located just 20 miles South of San Antonio, you won't want to miss this extraordinary evening in the olive orchard!

SANDY OAKS OLIVE ORCHARD
OLIVES WITH A TEXAS ACCENT™

Come celebrate 14 years of accomplishments by GEAA - protecting our aquifer! Bring your friends and enjoy fabulous food and live music among wildflowers and olive trees.

This year's fundraiser will be bigger and tastier, with help from local San Antonio women chefs. A silent auction will feature a wide array of items and services from throughout the Texas Hill Country.

25195 Mathis Rd,
Elmendorf, Texas
6:00 p.m. to 9: p.m.
