

Texans for Every Drop

Business Membership Benefits

Local businesses protecting the Edwards and Trinity aquifers, the springs and the Hill Country that our water depends on. Every level includes the benefits of the levels before it.

| BENEFIT                                              | Steward$250 | Supporter$500 | Advocate$1,000 | Champion$2,500 | Benefactor$5,000+ |
|------------------------------------------------------|------------------|--------------------|---------------------|---------------------|------------------------|
| Logo and link on the TED web page                    | ✓                | ✓                  | ✓                   | ✓                   | ✓                      |
| TED window decal                                     | ✓                | ✓                  | ✓                   | ✓                   | ✓                      |
| Name in the e-newsletter new-member list             |                  | ✓                  | ✓                   | ✓                   | ✓                      |
| Framed or digital member certificate                 |                  | ✓                  | ✓                   | ✓                   | ✓                      |
| Welcome post on GEAA social media                    |                  |                    | ✓                   | ✓                   | ✓                      |
| Logo in the GEAA annual report                       |                  |                    | ✓                   | ✓                   | ✓                      |
| Annual gala tickets                                  |                  |                    | 2                   | 4                   | 6                      |
| Additional social media shout-out                    |                  |                    | ✓                   | ✓                   | ✓                      |
| Dedicated e-blast profiling your business            |                  |                    |                     | ✓                   | ✓                      |
| Member-only aquifer field trip or recharge-zone tour |                  |                    |                     | ✓                   | ✓                      |
| Recognition from the stage at the gala               |                  |                    |                     |                     | ✓                      |
| Logo on event signage                                |                  |                    |                     |                     | ✓                      |
| Staff lunch-and-learn at your workplace              |                  |                    |                     |                     | ✓                      |
| Featured placement atop the TED page                 |                  |                    |                     |                     | ✓                      |

Join today

Sign up online at aquiferalliance.org/texans-for-every-drop

Contact: alison@aquiferalliance.org

GEAA is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit. Event tickets and other goods have a fair market value that reduces the tax-deductible portion of your membership; your receipt will list it.